Dedication

Attractive, charming, understanding, cooperative and able—so we the students have found her. And so will those who

HIRAM T. HUNTER

March 26, 1883 — October 9, 1947

IN LOVING MEMORY OF DR. H. T. HUNTER

Though death hath borne away thy dear familiar form
And we no more may hear thy vibrant voice ring clear,
Yet there remain of thee some precious memories:
Thy poise, thy charm, thy faith, thy friendliness so dear.

Though thou art gone, dear friend, and we are sorely grieved,
Thy spirit's presence seems to linger ever near,
Where thy life-work was spent as College President
In tasks beneficent through thy renowned career.

We learned to love thee much, but now we love thee more
Because we realize that thy achieved success
Was due to dedication of thyself to God
And fellow man, in hope our God thy faith would bless.

When all around we see reminders, constantly,
Of thy accomplishments, well-nigh beyond belief,
We know posterity, in grateful memory,
Will honor Dr. Hunter, our late lamented Chief!

If Christians gone to heaven are privileged, at will,
To visit earthly scenes, then surely, o'er and o'er,
Our leader will return to hover fondly 'round
Where he has wrought so well, a score of years and four.

Praise God for Dr. Hunter's life and services
At Western Carolina Teachers College here!
And bless, we pray, the work of him and his loved mate
And help us live, as they, the Christ-like life sincere!

ROBERT LEE MADISON
